

What's Happening on Sunday, April 3 ? The CBS 23rd Anniversary Party

Seth Grigg and Scott Cody are an interesting act that often works as a duo. They have a full band that rounds out the sound, but even as a duo, Seth's kinetic vibration on stage has an audience riveted, eyes glued to his every movement, ears straining to catch every growl, every nuance in his vocals. His style is uniquely Seth's. His guitar playing complements the raw energy he produces on stage. He seems to be channeling the blues masters that have gone before, and he is 100% vested.

In contrast, Scott Cody is quiet and solid. His playing and presence is the 'yin' to Seth's 'yang'. They feed off one another in a very visceral way. The end result is a most remarkable blues experience. The energy expended on stage should be bottled. I'd buy it!

What chef's specialty will you bring for the Hospitality Table ??

No, don't tell me ... Surprise me with your culinary expertise!

I'm sure it will be scrumptious!

(It's a Party! We'll bring the cake!)

On October 15, 2012, John Hiatt played the Neighborhood Theater. After the show, CBS member Ken Deery was able to get Hiatt's autograph on a mandolin, as well as Doug Lancio's, Hiatt's mandolin player.

April 3 will be your last chance to purchase tickets for the mandolin. Only $1 each or 6 for $5! The winning ticket will be drawn that night.
